

IISP Cybersecurity Demo Day 2017-18 Entrepreneurial Program, powered by VentureLab

Students enter the IISP Entrepreneurial Program, powered by VentureLab, by presenting a research poster on Sept. 27 at the IISP Cybersecurity Demo Day (phase one) at the Georgia Tech Cyber Security Summit. Student projects are selected to advance to the Spring '18 Demo Day Finale. Projects that are not selected are able to continue to complete by participating in evidenced-based entrepreneurial coaching with VentureLab. Students choose a track under which to continue the competition:

Track A: Commercialization

To be eligible for the Commercialization prize, participants must:

- Attend six educational sessions at VentureLab, October - April
- Perform 20-30 customer interviews
- Attend two Office Hours with VentureLab staff

By completing these requirements, teams are eligible to apply for an NSF I-Corps $50,000 grant. See page 3 of this document and the "Rules & Eligibility Form" at cyber.gatech.edu/cyber-demo-day

Track B: Research

To be eligible for the Research prize, participants must:

- Attend the October 5, 2017 and April 5, 2018 educational sessions
- Submit a final 3-4 min technology video for judging.
